

“Treasure Hunt from the past”/ A Mrittika production

Director: Sanjiban Guha / Clay Artist: Nirmal Pal of Ghurni

In the scorching heat of 2006 Summer, the overseas team of Mrittika, went to Ghurni to shoot a Documentary on the clay artisan Nirmal Pal and others of Ghurni, Krishnagar, West Bengal. That Documentary was part of the exhibition by Mrittika, which was hosted by the Business forum of NABC 2006 in Houston and was highly appreciated by the audience and the Researchers. The viewing of this documentary today, will reveal an unknown world of treasures indeed. Director Sanjiban Guha, is a Law Graduate and had been involved with Drama, Mimes and Puppets at his young age and had been an Actor and acted in National Award winning films. Currently working as an assistant director and working on quite a few Documentaries where he has projected his lifelong passion for folk heritage of Bengal and Bangladesh. He had been a part of Mrittika and also is the overseas trustee and Curator since 1994.